Linda Toukan has been with Comcast Metrophone since May 1987. She has held a variety of positions within the Marketing function, including Marketing Systems Supervisor, Marketing Manager of Distribution Programs and Manager of Marketing Programs.

Having managed Linda for nearly three years, I have found her to combine key strengths of creativity, analytical skills, strategic and tactical planning, and a results-oriented approach to project management. These attributes have enabled her to be a contributor on a wide variety of projects covering the pricing, consumer promotion, distribution promotion, advertising, collateral, and special events marketing.

Linda's energy, competitiveness and drive for continual improvement are an asset to any organization. Her decision to resign to pursue marketing opportunities outside of Comcast is an expression of her commitment to ongoing personal and professional growth.

Sincerely,
